

Media Accreditation and Important Information

Part II and III: Knowledge Keeper, Expert and Institutional Hearing

Quebec City, Quebec September 17-21, 2018

LOCATION: Hilton Quebec

1100 Blvd. René-Lévesque E., Quebec City, QC, G1R 4P3

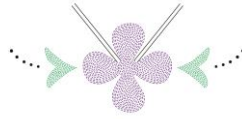

The National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls will have a Knowledge Keeper, Expert and Institutional Hearing in Quebec City beginning on Monday, September 17 and concluding on Friday, September 21, 2018. The hearings will start at 9:00 am EDT and are expected to finish at 5:00 pm EDT each day.

All media attending the hearing must have an accreditation card to enter the hearing room and a colour coded lanyard will be provided to you and must be visible at all times. Please note it does not provide access to private hearings rooms, or to rooms where the health team or other staff are located.

WHO IS ENTITLED TO PRESS ACCREDITATION: Accreditation is granted only to journalists (reporters, photographers, columnists, documentary filmmakers) who cover the issue of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls or survivors of violence. Journalists must represent a recognized media outlet. YouTubers, bloggers or those involved with the blogosphere will not be granted accreditation. To obtain your media accreditation, please fill out the form below.

RESTRICTIONS: Accreditation does not authorize media to take photographs or images using devices such as cameras, smartphones or hand-held cameras inside the hearing room(s). Only the official National Inquiry video cameras, the media pool camera and an on-line media camera will be permitted to record inside.

There may be an opportunity to take photos of the Commissioners at the beginning of the hearing. Media will be seated in a specific area within the hearing room. A buffer zone around certain areas of the location will be reserved for families and people involved in the Inquiry. We ask that those areas be respected.
