

December 14, 2018

By email only to: b.zandberg@mmiwg-ffada.ca

Bryan Zandberg
Register
National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered
Indigenous Women and Girls
PO Box 500, Station A
Vancouver, BC V6C 2N3

Dear Registrar:

Families for Justice
Our File No.: 17-2525

Please find below the list of documents which we request be submitted in accordance with Rule 33 of the Legal Path: Rule of Respectful Practice. Those documents are in relation to the subject of violence against indigenous women and the mandate of the inquiry.

1. Families First: A Manitoba Indigenous Approach to Addressing the Issue of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls, report of the Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs, July 21, 2015;
2. Transcript of Testimony of Bridget Tolley at the Viens Inquiry, September 26, 2018;
3. Open Letter to the Chief Commissioner Buller dated May 15, 2017;
4. Open Letter to the Prime Minister dated August 8, 2017;
5. Open Letter to Minister Carolyn Bennett dated March 28, 2018;
6. "Bracelets 144 : un obstacle aux bonnes relations entre policiers et Autochtones", CBC: ICI.Radio-Canada.ca, September 20, 2018
7. Smylie, Janet & Cywink, Magen, "Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women: Working with Families to Prepare for the National Inquiry", Canadian Journal of Public Health, Vol. 107, No. 4-5, 2016.

We respectfully request that these documents be received by the National Inquiry to form part of its record.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

Fraser Advocacy,
Per:

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Suzan E. Fraser'.

Suzan E. Fraser
SEF/rim

Encl.