

National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls
Enquête nationale sur les femmes et les filles autochtones disparues et assassinées

Important Information

The National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls will be in your area

To all families and survivors in Ontario:

The National Inquiry will have a team made up of staff from the Health, Community Relations, and Legal on the ground for Community Visits for the week of September 12, 2017. The teams will be reaching out to those of you in the Thunder Bay area who would like to participate in the National Inquiry.

These community visits will help us all to plan and prepare for Community Hearings that are part of the overall Truth Gathering Process that will take place the week of December 4, 2017, in Thunder Bay.

Thunder Bay, ON: September 12-14, 2017

Contact Sarah Rourke, Community Liaison Officer, at 1 (450) 374-5822 or at s.rourke@mmiwg-ffada.ca, or Denise Pictou-Maloney, Community Liaison Officer, at 1 (902) 440-6901 or at d.pictou-maloney@mmiwg-ffada.ca, to find out more about how you can meet with the National Inquiry to get information on how you can participate.

It is important to note that families, survivors and loved ones have choices in how to share, in a comfortable and safe way. There are many ways to participate, including before a Commissioner in a private and confidential hearing without any media cameras present.
