Teaching Quality Standard

Whereas

Alberta's teachers, students, parents, educational leaders, and members of the public have a strong will to ensure all Alberta students have access to quality learning experiences that enable their achievement of the learning outcomes outlined in programs of study.

Whereas

Alberta teachers provide inclusive learning environments in which diversity is respected and members of the school community are welcomed, cared for, respected and safe.

Whereas

Alberta teachers play a fundamental role in establishing the conditions under which the learning aspirations and the potential of First Nations, Métis and Inuit students will be realized.

Whereas

quality teaching occurs best when teachers work together with other teachers in the common interest of helping all students succeed in diverse and complex learning environments.

Whereas

the Teaching Quality Standard provides a framework for the preparation, professional growth, supervision and evaluation of all teachers.

Whereas

students, parents and other partners in education should be confident that Alberta teachers demonstrate the Teaching Quality Standard throughout their careers.

Whereas

it is important to recognize the value of a consistent standard of professional practice for all teachers in the province.

1. In the context of this document:

- (a) “competency” means an interrelated set of knowledge, skills and attitudes, developed over time and drawn upon and applied to a particular teaching context in order to support optimum student learning as required by the Teaching Quality Standard;
- (b) “inclusive learning environment” means a classroom, school, on-line learning environment or other educational setting structured to anticipate, value and respond to the diverse strengths and needs of all learners;
- (c) “indicators” means actions that are likely to lead to the achievement of a competency and which, together with the competency, are measurable and observable;
- (d) “local community” means community members who have an interest in education and the school, including neighbouring Métis settlements, First Nations and other members of the public;
- (e) “school authority” means a public school board, separate school board, Francophone regional authority, charter school operator or accredited private school operator;
- (f) “school community” means students, teachers and other school staff members, parents/guardians and school council members;
- (g) “school council” means a school council established under the School Act, or a parent advisory council established under the Private Schools Regulation;
- (h) “student” means, for the purpose of this standard, an individual enrolled in a school or required by law to attend, and includes a child younger than 6 years of age who is enrolled in an early childhood services program;
- (i) “teacher” means an individual who holds a certificate of qualification as a teacher issued under the School Act.

2. The Teaching Quality Standard:

Quality teaching occurs when the teacher’s ongoing analysis of the context, and the teacher’s decisions about which pedagogical knowledge and abilities to apply, result in optimum learning for all students.

3. All Alberta teachers are expected to meet the Teaching Quality Standard throughout their careers. In any given context, reasoned professional judgment must be used to determine whether the Teaching Quality Standard is being met.

4. The Teaching Quality Standard is described by the following competencies and indicators:
