Documents submitted with testimony:

ITEM 1  Written statement of Glenda Buckle (six pages)
Happy Valley-Goose Bay, Newfoundland and Labrador

--- Upon commencing on Wednesday, March 7, 2018

MS. ALANA LEE: So it's March 7th, 2018. We are currently at the Hotel North Two in Happy Valley-Goose Bay. I am with Glenda...

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Buckle.

MS. ALANA LEE: Glenda Buckle. We also have her husband Brian Buckle, and we have health support. You want to state --

MS. ODELLE PIKE: Odelle Pike.

MS. ALANA LEE: Odelle Pike, and this is Alana Lee, statement gatherer, and Glenda, you're here on a voluntary basis?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Oh, yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay. And so you're here to talk about your daughter --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: My sister.

MS. ALANA LEE: Oh, your sister?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: M'hm.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay, sorry about that. Your sister Janet. And you're okay with this being public?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: No problem.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay. Where would you like to start?
MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: I'd just like to say good afternoon, my name is Glenda Buckle. I want to share my story. On February 28th, 1979, my sister Janet Louvelle left home, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. After a few days with no word from her, she was reported missing to the police. I called many of her friends, and I also called people that she babysit for, but no one had saw her (indiscernible).

I know she would have called our parents or especially me. She would have let me know if she was going to be gone any length of time, overnight or whatever, but she always made sure we knew where she was.

In June of the same year, her body was found, and we were notified that it -- that it was my sister. It was just weeks before her 17th birthday in July 3rd. She was found 20 -- 12 kilometers from outside Corner Brook. Her body was decomposed that it made it very hard to identify her or what was the cause of her death.

Several years later, they exhumed her body and found that a knife wound in her shoulder had been thought the cause of her death at the time, and I'd say, like, how can -- how can that be possible, the only cause,
I had wondered. Her body had been found draped over an old fallen tree with her legs bent at the knees and her arms behind her -- her back with her sweater back over her head and tied at the back, and she was facing up, straight up, when she was found. All they knew it was then a knife wound, and that made everyone a suspect to me back then.

In 1983, another young Corner Brook woman had been found, and her body had been brutally attacked as well. This made us all wonder if both women were attacked by the same person.

Thirty-three years later, Malcolm Norman Cuff, which was in prison at the time for committing another crime against the second Corner Brook woman, finally admitted to killing my sister, as well, and had the chance to be free on parole.

The -- it will never -- never bring my sister back, the years I have missed with her, and I will never have closure because right now, I cannot forgive, and I cannot forget, but I am happy that bringing her story forward may help in others' similar situations.

I now have a granddaughter the same age as Janet was when she was murdered, and my granddaughter, she has such a bright future ahead of her. So did Janet. Thank you.

MS. ALANA LEE: And is that a picture of Janet right there?
MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: That is a picture of Janet.

MS. ALANA LEE: Beautiful.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah. What was his name?

You said Malcolm --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Malcolm Norman Cuff.

MS. ALANA LEE: Cuff? How do I spell his last name?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: C-U-F-F.

MS. ALANA LEE: C-U-F-F. At the time, do you remember a police investigation?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes, they did. They did do an investigation, but it's -- like, years and years before they could find exactly who it was.

MS. ALANA LEE: M'hm.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: There was no evidence. Like, the evidence was gone. Back then, her body was found that day, 11 o'clock. At 12:30, it was gone out of the spot. Today's technology, that would not happen.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: That would be there for days, and it would be secured off. There would be all kinds of investigations, but back then, there wasn't.
There was no DNA back then.

MS. ALANA LEE: And so it was a result of him admitting?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay. How old were you at the time?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: I had two -- I was married and had two children of my own by then, so I guess I was about -- oh, 17 -- 17 -- I had -- I guess 25. Yeah, I think, yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: Would you remember any services being offered to you at the time?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: There was none.

MS. ALANA LEE: None. Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: No services.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: And what's got me so far through this one is I -- is our culture.

MS. ALANA LEE: M'hm.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: I got active into the drumming and singing and in another thing going into the hospitals, singing and drumming for the elderly, and long-term care facility is a -- a place, like, people go, and...
MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: And -- and a few things like was offered out in Bay St. George by Odelle, hurt and healing circles, taking me to Halifax to walk with our sisters.

MS. ALANA LEE: Oh, okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: And the faceless doll --

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: -- was a tremendous help to me. I highly recommend it to anybody that is going through like I'm going through now, even though I know, I spent all my time, but everything was just back here with me. It stayed there, and I come to surface, you know, here and there, but I found -- when I went to Halifax, walk with our sisters, I left an ocean of tears behind me, and I really felt good when I came home.

MS. ALANA LEE: Wow, that's a really positive way of --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes. Yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: -- yes, of coping, for sure.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: M'hm.

MS. ALANA LEE: Do you know -- was the other woman who you mentioned, and I think you said in 1983 --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes.
MS. ALANA LEE: -- was she First Nations as well?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: I'm not sure.

MS. ALANA LEE: You're not sure? Okay.

MS. ODELLE PIKE: She is.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Is she?

MS. ODELLE PIKE: Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah? Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Okay, she probably was.

Yeah.

MS. ODELLE PIKE: Marilyn Ann Newman was her name.

MS. ALANA LEE: What was her name?

MS. ODELLE PIKE: Marilyn Anne Newman.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay. And -- sorry, just so the transcribers know, that was Odelle speaking.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: M'hm.

MS. ALANA LEE: And Malcolm himself, do you know if he was of First Nations descent?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: I'm not sure. I'm not sure. I don't even know if he's still in jail now because I've heard that he's probably out.

MS. ALANA LEE: Oh, okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: And if he is out, I
Glenda Buckle
(Janet Louvelle)

would like to know some way of knowing if he is out.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: You know?

MS. ALANA LEE: If he is out on parole. So no one from -- and then I wonder if it would be Victim Services, you know, to contact --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: I've made a call, a few people, you know, but it's a long process to try to find out if he's still in prison or not.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: But I would really like to know if he's out and he's in Corner Brook, and I know I should forgive. I feel terrible because I should be able to forgive and forget what he did, but I can't. I can't find it in my heart to do it, and I don't know if I ever will, and, like, I'm trying with my culture to accept, you know, well, he did it, and all I'm doing is dragging -- I know, I'm dragging a load of baggage behind my back that I can't just lift anymore, and I don't know how to get rid of it, and like I said, I need help to try to forgive so I can forget.

MS. ALANA LEE: So you grew up -- was it just you and your sister? Did you --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: No. There was five sisters.

MS. ALANA LEE: Five sisters.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Five of us, and two brothers. Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: And you guys all grew up in Corner Brook?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes. Well, I was born in Stephenville Crossing, but I was moved here when I was around 2 and a half or 3.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: And I've been in Corner Brook ever since.

MS. ALANA LEE: And do both of your parents identify as Mi'kmaq?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay. Any history of residential schools?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: No.

MS. ALANA LEE: No?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: No.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay. And you mentioned you have a granddaughter who's 17?
MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: She will be 17, yeah.

Yeah. Soon, yeah. She's doing wonderful in school.

MS. ALANA LEE: That's awesome.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Excellent.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: High (indiscernible) marks, nice young girl, but I fear all the time. I fear, and I've educated her as much as I can without telling her too, too much, and her mother and father's doing it, so it should be good, but I wouldn't want hear, tell of Malcolm Norman Cuff moving in a house in Curling somewhere not too far away from her.

MS. ALANA LEE: M'hm.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Because I don't -- I don't think -- if he done that twice, he'll do it again. Two times, I guess he got caught. Maybe next time he won't. I don't know.

MS. ALANA LEE: At that time -- so you had already been moved out. Do you remember the police contacting your parents on a regular basis?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: They did.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah? Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: And they used to come to my place -- they came to my place, I'm not sure, to come in -- didn't take their boots off on the end.

MS. ALANA LEE: Oh, okay.

(LAUGHTER)

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Come right on in. Yeah. But I didn't get a lot of information out of them at first because all they said at first, they thought, oh, maybe it was hypothermia, maybe she took her own clothes off, you know?

MS. ALANA LEE: Hm.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: -- and ran down to the woods or something, but no, that wasn't what it was.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay. Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Mm-mm.

MS. ALANA LEE: So there was speculation on (indiscernible) --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: Do you remember what police detachment?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Well, it would have been Corner Brook.
MS. ALANA LEE: Corner Brook?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah, the RCMP.

MS. ALANA LEE: RCMP, okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ODELLE PIKE: It's the RNC there --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ODELLE PIKE: -- but at the time, it was RCMP.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: RCMP.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: And they're RNC now? What does that --

MS. ODELLE PIKE: Royal -- Royal Newfoundland Constabulary.

MS. ALANA LEE: Oh, okay. Constabulary?

MS. ODELLE PIKE: M'hm.

MS. ALANA LEE: I never knew that.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah. M'hm. I even remember, it was Corporal Joe MacDonald (ph). He was on the case big time.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: And later on, when the time come to solve, it was Paddy McNuff (ph). He was retired now, but when my mom passed away there last year, he came to the funeral.

MS. ALANA LEE: Oh, really?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay. So how would you -- would you say, then, that you had a -- how was your experience with the RCMP at that time?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Well, I didn't have a lot to do with it. Like I said, I was -- I was gone by this time.

MS. ALANA LEE: M'hm.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: But just when they came down to ask me did I hear anything --

MS. ALANA LEE: M'hm.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: -- you know, and communicate like that, there was just a one person I dealt with, and that was Joe, Constable Joe MacAllan (ph). I think he was from River Stephens (ph).

MS. ALANA LEE: Is there anything you'd like to say about your sister? What was she like?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: She was known for her smile. She had a beautiful smile. She -- well, she didn't drink or smoke anything that I know of. She loved children, dearly loved children. She'd babysit for her friends. Everybody liked her. She was, like, an outgoing person. She spent quite a bit of time at my place, was always there, and then when I moved from -- up -- like, it's only about four or five miles down Curling, she'd just come every now and then. Yeah. Like, every few weeks, she'd come.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah. Do you have any recommendations for the Commission?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Recommendations? Well, strongly, I can -- with the -- with just the people that's left behind to -- if you get the opportunity, to get into the culture more strongly, get into the culture.

MS. ALANA LEE: M'hm.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Offer all kinds of things for them so they can get out and do it.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah. More kind of cultural healing practices?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes, definitely, more. More. Because, like, I did a lot -- it did a lot of good for me, and I'd love to see other people get the opportunity to do it.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah. Is there anything else you'd like to add?
Glenda Buckle
(Janet Louvelle)

1. MS. GLENSA BUCKLE: I -- I don't think so, not at this time, no. I don't think so.

2. MS. ALANA LEE: The document you had that you were sharing your truth, is it possible for us to get a copy of that, to --

3. MS. GLENSA BUCKLE: This one?

4. MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah.

5. MS. GLENSA BUCKLE: Oh, you can have it.

6. MS. ALANA LEE: Oh, perfect.

7. MS. GLENSA BUCKLE: Yes, definitely.

8. MS. ALANA LEE: Thank you.

9. MS. GLENSA BUCKLE: You can have it.

10. MS. ALANA LEE: Thank you.

11. MS. GLENSA BUCKLE: Do you want her to sign it?

12. MS. ALANA LEE: No, that's okay.

13. MS. GLENSA BUCKLE: I can sign it if you want.

14. MS. ALANA LEE: No. That's -- that's -- I mean -- no, I don't think so.

(LAUGHTER)

15. MS. ALANA LEE: We got -- we got consent on video, so --

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah, no, that's perfect right there. Yeah, thank you for coming --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: M'hm.

MS. ALANA LEE: -- to share your -- to share your story. Anything else you'd like to add?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: No, not -- I don't think so.

MS. ALANA LEE: No?

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: No. I had -- I had to write that down because my mind is a blank. That's why I had to write it down and -- and read it off.

MS. ALANA LEE: Everybody's process is different.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: And I think, you know, sometimes it's helpful, and --

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yes.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: Yeah.

MS. GLENDA BUCKLE: Yeah.

MS. ALANA LEE: Okay, Glenda. It is 3:07, and we're going to conclude the statement.

--- Upon adjourning at 3:07 p.m.
