ORDER
MOTIONORDONNANCE
REQUÊTEBRADLEY DAVID BARTON v. HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN
(Alta.) (37769)ROWE J.:

UPON APPLICATION by the Attorney General of Canada, the Attorney General of Ontario, the Attorney General of Manitoba, the Attorney General of British Columbia, the Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions, Aboriginal Legal Services, the Assembly of First Nations, the Women of the Métis Nation/Les Femmes Michif Otipemisiwak, the David Asper Centre for Constitutional Rights, the Criminal Trial Lawyers' Association (Alberta), the Criminal Lawyers' Association, the Independent Criminal Defence Advocacy Society, Ad Idem/Canadian Media Lawyers' Association, the Institute for the Advancement of Aboriginal Women and the Women's Legal Education and Action Fund Inc. (jointly), the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls, and the Vancouver Rape Relief Society, La Concertation des luttes contre l'exploitation sexuelle, the Asian Women for Equality Society, the Aboriginal Women's Action Network, Formerly Exploited Voices Now Educating and the Centre to End All Sexual Exploitation (jointly) for leave to intervene in the above appeal;

AND UPON REQUEST by the appellant for leave to file a reply factum of 5 pages to the interventions and for an additional 15 minutes of time for oral argument to respond to the interveners;

AND UPON REQUEST by the respondent for leave to file a reply factum of 5 pages to the interventions and for an additional 15 minutes of time for oral argument to respond to the interveners;

AND THE MATERIAL FILED having been read;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

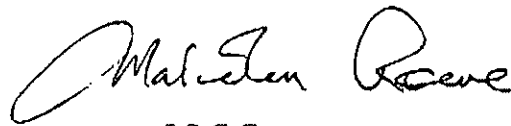

The motions for leave to intervene are granted. The said 16 interveners or groups of interveners shall each be entitled to serve and file a factum not to exceed 10 pages in length on or before September 13, 2018. These interveners are each granted permission to present oral argument not exceeding 5 minutes at the hearing of the appeal.

The interveners are not entitled to (a) take a position on the outcome of the appeal, or (b) adduce further evidence or otherwise supplement the record of the parties. In light of their leave materials, the following interveners are specifically cautioned against taking a position on the outcome of the appeal: the Attorney General of Ontario, the Assembly of First Nations, the Institute for the Advancement of Aboriginal Women and the Women's Legal Education and Action Fund Inc. (jointly), the Women of Métis Foundation/Les Femmes Michif Otipemissiwak, and the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. In light of its leave materials, the intervener Ad Idem/Canadian Media Lawyers' Association is specifically cautioned against the introduction of evidence supplementing the record of the parties.

The appellant and the respondent shall each be entitled to serve and file a factum in reply to the interventions, each not to exceed 5 pages in length, on or before September 24, 2018. The appellant is granted an additional 5 minutes of oral argument in reply to the interventions, for a total reply time of 10 minutes.

Pursuant to Rule 59(1)(a) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Canada, the interveners or groups of interveners shall pay to the appellant and respondent any additional disbursements resulting from their interventions.
