

JACQUELINE HANSEN

Summary of Accomplishments

- Powerful and persuasive advocate for social justice issues with 19 years of progressive experience working with Nobel Peace Prize-winning international non-governmental organizations.
- Cultivated relationships with diverse sets of partners including governments, international and non-governmental organizations, donors, coalition member organizations, volunteers, and boards.
- Created and implemented advocacy and research strategies which led to concrete social change.
- Succeeded in a diverse, fast-paced, and ever-changing work environment.

Professional Experience

2013-present

MAJOR CAMPAIGNS AND WOMEN'S RIGHTS CAMPAIGNER

Amnesty International Canada (English), Ottawa, ON

- Led the organization's campaigning on women's rights, LGBTI rights, the global Stop Torture campaign, and the Brave campaign on the rights of human rights defenders, which included Canada-focused and international case work.
- Co-led the No More Stolen Sisters campaign on violence against Indigenous women and girls, and co-researched and co-wrote the Out of Sight, Out of Mind report.
- Led the organization's internal gender mainstreaming activities.
- Developed and implemented campaign strategies, wrote campaign materials, and supported Amnesty activists.
- Engaged in joint advocacy as part of broad coalitions.
- Conducted effective print, radio, and television media interviews.
- Engaged with international investigations (CEDAW, IACHR), treaty body reviews (CEDAW, UPR), and UN country visits (UN SR VAW).
- Government relations work at the municipal, provincial, and federal levels, including submissions to and appearances before Parliamentary Committees.

2005 to 2013

LANDMINE AND CLUSTER MUNITION MONITOR PROGRAM MANAGER

International Campaign to Ban Landmines-Cluster Munition Coalition, Ottawa, ON

- Managed the research, editing, and publication of the international community's leading source of information on landmines and cluster munitions.
- Coordinated a global network of over 100 human rights researchers.
- Researched, wrote, edited, and proofread documents ranging from newsletters and annual reports to 1,000-page technical reports.

JACQUELINE HANSEN

- Promoted and publicized the program's work to the international community and effectively communicated messages orally through media interviews, meeting interventions, and facilitating workshops.
- Effectively recruited, trained, supervised, and evaluated volunteers, interns, consultants, and staff, and collaborated with a globally dispersed team to set annual work plans that responded to advocacy priorities and to support member campaigns.
- Creatively tackled challenges and accomplished projects with small operating budgets and short timelines.
- Served as a member of the campaign's Senior Management Team.
- Facilitated strategic planning and organizational change within a difficult financial environment.
- Provided strategic leadership throughout an organizational transition which doubled the program's mandate.
- Developed, managed, and reported on an annual budget of up to US$2 million.

2002-2005

PROJECT OFFICER

International Campaign to Ban Landmines, Washington, DC

- Supported member organizations in the planning and execution of awareness-raising activities.
- Regularly wrote and posted content to the campaign's website.
- Coordinated civil society participation in major disarmament-related meetings and forums.
- Worked with a diverse network of Latin American member organizations to campaign for the full implementation of the treaty banning landmines.

2000-2002

PROGRAM ASSISTANT

International Campaign to Ban Landmines, Washington, DC

- Organized logistics for civil society participation in major disarmament-related meetings and forums.
- Initiated a volunteer and internship program.
- Facilitated the integration of youth into the global anti-landmine campaign.

1999-2000

YOUTH AMBASSADOR

Youth Mine Action Ambassador Program, Canadian Red Cross, Vancouver, BC

- Designed and facilitated awareness-raising and interactive workshops, exhibitions, fundraisers, and public events.
- Trained, motivated, and supported a province-wide network of volunteers promoting the global ban on landmines.

JACQUELINE HANSEN

Education

1996-1999 BACHELOR OF ARTS WITH DISTINCTION, DOUBLE MAJOR, POLITICAL SCIENCE AND ANTHROPOLOGY
University of Victoria, Victoria, BC

Related Skills

- Computer skills: Microsoft Office, Adobe (Acrobat, In Design), and basic HTML.
- Language abilities: fluent English, proficient Spanish, and basic French.

Exhibit: National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls
Location/Phase: Parts 2/3: Quebec
Witness: Jacqueline Hansen
Submitted by: Christa Big Canoe
Add'l info: P02-03 P02 P0201
Date: SEP 18 2018
Initials	I/D	Entered
b3		16