This page is dedicated to providing information about missing and or murdered First Nations, Inuit and Métis, Two Spirit, or trans identified people. We would like to expand the dialogue and focus on MMIW to include those who fall outside of Euro-centric male/female gender and sexuality binaries.

Gender based violence also impacts Indigenous women and Indigenous people who are part of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, transsexual, queer, questioning intersex, and asexual (LGBTQQIA) community. LGBTQQIA people often don't fit gender binaries, or other Western categories of relationships and identities dictated by mainstream culture and as a result experience increased amounts of violence. This has resulted in the continuance of hundreds, if not thousands of disappearances and deaths across these lands.
